

I'm just adding my name to the chorus of those opposed to allowing media conglomerates to control more of our air space and newspapers, etc. than they already do. A few big companies will then control everything we watch, hear and read. I'm against it and hope Congress overrules the recent ruling.